What is Affiliate Membership?

Affiliate membership is a category of membership developed for those people who want to belong to BCC and already have full membership in another synagogue.

Other candidates are parents, siblings and other relatives of BCC members who would like to support their family member's congregation, out of solidarity and love.

Most Affiliate members do not live locally to BCC.

What are the Benefits of Affiliate Membership?

- Receive the newsletter, G'vanim.
- Receive BCC e-bulletin full of BCC's events and programs.
- Receive member announcements regarding congregational matters.
- Attend BCC's High Holy Days services by using tickets from your primary synagogue. Just show us your tickets at any of our services.
- Participate in the temple life of a vibrant, progressive Jewish community.
- Discounted rates for High Holy Days Tickets.

For Whom was Affiliate Membership Created?

In addition to relatives of BCC members, Affiliate Membership was created for those who:

- Are members of other synagogues and would like to be affiliated with BCC as well.
- Are former members who have moved and would like to stay in touch.
- Are interested in supporting the BCC community.
- Wish to take part in BCC's unique culture.

Are There Any Restrictions on Affiliate Membership?

Affiliate Members may not vote in congregational meetings.

Affiliate Members do not receive all member communications.

How Much Does Affiliate Membership Cost?

$250 Annually

A Bissl About BCC

In 1972 a small group of Los Angeles Jews shared a vision. They dared to dream of a safe place to worship, celebrate their heritage and create community. They called their dream Beth Chayim Chadashim, "House of New Life" -- the world's first synagogue for lesbians and gay men. Today BCC is an inclusive congregation of lesbian, gay, bi, and heterosexual Jews, our friends and families. We continue to affirm the visions of our founders that all people are created in B'tzelem Elohim, in G-d's image.
